INTERNATIONAL DIVISION

MAY 1 1978

The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Attention: Office of Legislative Counsel

Dear Admiral Turner:

Enclosed for your review are two copies of our proposed report "Investigation and Prosecution of Alleged Nazi War Criminals Residing in the United States--A Lack of Progress Surrounded by Controversy." This assignment was performed at the request of the Chairman, House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship, and International Law.

Due to the Chairman's desire to receive this report as soon as possible, we would appreciate receiving the Agency's written comments on the draft by May 5, 1978. We shall be pleased to meet with your representatives if any questions arise during the review of the draft. If a meeting is desired, please contact Mr. Daniel F. Stanton, Associate Director, General Government Division, on 275-3641.

We wish to point out that the segments in the draft pertaining to your Agency have already been reviewed by your representatives for sensitivity and declassification and approval to release the material in the draft was obtained on April 24, 1978. Also, such approval was obtained from the other Federal agencies mentioned in the draft.

As stated on the cover of the draft report, the report is restricted and the material presented is subject to revision and should not be released for purposes other than review and comment. The draft report and all copies (1) should be safeguarded to prevent premature publication or unauthorized use and (2) belong and must be returned on demand to GAO. Your Department's comments will be incorporated in whole or in part, in our final report.

Singerely yours,

J. K. Fasick
